SENATOR LONG SENDS MESSAGE TO H. T. RAINY

Newspapers Declare Speaker Is Siding With Mayor

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—Senator Huey P. Long, of Louisiana, has told Speaker Henry T. Rainey about reports—attributed to New Orleans newspapers—that the speaker is siding with Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley of New Orleans in his brisk row with the "Kingfish."

Senator Long's office today made public a copy of the telegram which the headline-making son sent Rainey at the latter's home in Carrollton, Ill.

The Long communication followed New Orleans reports that Mayor Walmsley had complained to the House leader over the seizure by National Guardsmen at Long's instance, of the voters' registration office in the Crescent City. Walmsley was said to have pointed out that possession of the registration office would give the Long-supported congressional candidates, Representatives Fernandez and Maloney, an advantage over the candidates Walmsley and the anti-Longs.

Long's Telegram.

The Long telegram said: "The ring government of New Orleans has boasted publicly and nationally newspapers and magazines have printed for many months the report that the city government is protecting the greatest open and most notorious red light district in the world and that throughout the city there are hundreds of gambling dives and open vice and lottery dens of every kind."

"It is openly admitted that the fallen women and the illegal dives are being levied upon for regular collection. You are being quoted in the papers here as favoring this kind of lawlessness maintained in New Orleans when the governor (O. K. Allen) has demanded that the authorities in the city suppress the same."

"They say you criticized me because I support the stand taken by the governor against the red light district vice."

"In connection with repeated warnings that have been given and requests to officers to discontinue open lawlessness in New Orleans, which have become a national disgrace our governor has guarded his state office of the registrar of voters in this city against attack, at the same time granting to the city hall the right to place any persons they wish there to observe all things at all times and to insure propriety of proceedings."

"If you have any complaint about the conduct of the governor and my backing him up and you think it is your duty to speak, kindly inform me just what is the view you wish known relative to your approval of red light district and gambling dives which are open here."

"Please let it be known if you wish your name linked with the open license given to the red light districts and gambling dives and dives the ring government permits to operate. Since they say you design to give advice relative to how you look upon the conduct of a senator supporting the governor, please advise if you would recommend that a United States senator give aid and counsel to the red light district and vice dens, and if that is your idea of what you would do if you were here."

DILLINGER'S BODY MAY BE DISINTERRED

Father Of Desperado Obtains Permission To Exhume Body

Indianapolis, Aug. 1.—(P)—John Dillinger, Sr., today sought and obtained permission to disinter the body of his son, "Wooden Gun John."

Accompanied by his attorney, Samuel J. Mantell, the seventy year old father of the slain desperado went to the state board of health and filled out forms necessary for exhumation of the body which was buried last week in Crown Hill cemetery here.

He gave no reason for wanting to disinter the body and later between his stage appearances at a local theater he declined to discuss the matter. He would only say the action was taken following communication with some persons in Chicago. He refused to name these persons.

Has Permit.

"I have the permit," said the father, "but I haven't decided yet whether to use it."

During his stage appearances the father says: "There isn't enough money in the world to get me to place my boy's body on exhibition."

Shortly after Dillinger's body was brought to his home town of Mooresville, Ind., to be prepared for burial, the father revealed he had received an offer of $10,000 from two promoters who desired to place the body on exhibition.

The father rejected this offer saying: "I don't like things like that."

The application to exhume the body came shortly after Frank J. Walsh, coroner at Chicago, had revealed that scientists under his direction were studying parts of the brain and vital organs of the bandit.

The coroner said an ounce or two of the criminal's brain and parts of his lungs, heart and kidneys had been removed soon after he had been shot and killed at Chicago. The coroner added that pathologists were examining the organs to determine whether Dillinger's anti-social tendencies might be attributed to abnormality or disease.

NAVY WILL CUT CONSTRUCTION OF AIRPLANES

Believe 1910 Planes Are Adequate For Peace Time

By Douglas B. Cornell (Copyright, 1934, By The Associated Press)

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—The naval high command was disclosed authoritatively tonight to have determined on a sharp reduction in naval aviation construction.

The applications of seven new members were read and approved. The auxiliary now has a membership of 116, the largest number the local unit has had in several years. The new members taken into the organization were Florence Marine, Katherine Sheppard, Kathryn Main, Esther McFarland, Florence Cobb, Nellie Longman, and Evelyn Holt.

It was decided to hold a market in the near future and a committee composed of Mary Beth Rogers, Marie Bridges, Mabel Vanner, Katherine Sheppard and Florence Marine, was named to take charge of the arrangements.

The Naval Plate was awarded to Mrs. Gary Branstritter, chairman of the membership committee, for her outstanding work. The attendance prize was awarded to Catherine Wright.

BARBER SHOP CONFERENCE

Ogden, Aug. 1.—(P)—Postmaster General James A. Farley today held his first Utah conference in a barber shop.

He arose too late for a breakfast with Governor Henry H. Blood and other officials, so went to a barber shop and conferred there with Senator William H. King while being shaved.

William Farnsworth of Lynnville was a business caller in the city yesterday afternoon.

Freighter Founders After Fire

When the freighter Atenas caught fire shortly before she was to sail from New York, waterfront apparatus extinguished the $500,000 blaze after a six-hour battle. But so much water was poured into the hold that the ship sank by the stern, as pictured here.

ILLINOIS WILL FINANCE RELIEF DURING AUGUST

Officials Unwilling To Pay Proposed Interest Rate

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—Illinois will do its own relief financing during August.

Unwilling to pay the interest rate proposed by a syndicate of Chicago banks, the state rejected the only bid for $5,000,000 of revenue notes against the $30,000,000 unemployment relief bond issue program.

Treasurer John C. Martin at the same time announced at Chicago that the state would use $2,500,000 from its surplus funds to meet its share of the expenses of the Illinois emergency relief commission.

Considerable Saving

The banks bid on the revenue notes at 34 per cent interest. As a result of the rejection, the state will save considerable money since interest of only two per cent is required when a state agency borrows from the treasury.

The action was taken after Martin went to Chicago in an attempt to get the five loan banks, acting as a syndicate, to alter the bid they made yesterday.

These banks previously purchased $20,000,000 of the revenue notes, taking the first half at par and the rest less than one and a half per cent interest.

Reports were that the higher rate asked today was based on the possibility that the bond issue might not be approved at the November referendum, which would delay redemption of the last issues. If the bond referendum fails, the law provides for the retirement of the notes at a tax on property.

Martin today paid $2,660,000 principal and $1,576,775 interest, a total of $4,236,775, on the state's $35,000,000 soldier compensation bonds.

28 DETROIT BUSINESS MEN ARE INDICTED

Are Charged With Misapplication Of Funds

Detroit, Aug. 1.—(P)—Twenty-eight men—the list reading as it might have been copied from a "Who's Who in Detroit Business and Finance"—were named today in federal indictments charging misapplication of funds, conspiracy or the making of false entries in bank reports.

The new proclamation directed the adjutant general, "without the use of any force, unless otherwise directed by me hereafter," to "make a survey and investigation to determine when and where red light districts are operating within the city limits of New Orleans and adjacent areas thereto miscellaneous gambling."

The governor returned to the capital at Baton Rouge, leaving to Senator Long direction of the troops. The first of them were called out Monday night. They carried out the senator's orders to seize the registration office in the city hall annex where the names of persons eligible to vote in the September congressional primary are listed.

Adjutant General Fleming said he had not yet received Governor Allen's order which would turn the guardsmen into a huge detective force to investigate the "red light district" and "miscellaneous gambling."

The new proclamation directed the adjutant general, "without the use of any force, unless otherwise directed by me hereafter," to "make a survey and investigation to determine when and where red light districts are operating within the city limits of the downtown district."

Troopers in 20 army trucks lined the street before the central office, dispersed 2,000 spectators outside, and searched and questioned occupants of the building, among who was State Representative Roy E. Wier, active in labor circles.

Union representatives later were allowed to use their office though guards were maintained over the building as they were over strike headquarters of the drivers. Troops arrested two ringleaders, confiscated 40 automobiles, and dispersed occupants numbering several score.

Widespread attacks on moving vehicles resulted. Several drivers were beaten and slugged, some vehicles tipped, and other operators frightened from their machines. The guard struck swiftly to stamp out for the day, the revolt of strikers against the military that had permitted 7,500 trucks to move under permit.

Arrests followed and in the second raid of the day that forced out some 200 men and women in the central labor union's offices adjacent to the drivers. Troops arrested two ringleaders, confiscated 40 automobiles, and dispersed occupants numbering several score.

The proclamation of the governor apparently is designed to usurp powers, duties and functions of the district attorney, he said. "I particularly note that the governor in his proclamation excludes any investigation of graft and paid for operations of lottery, blackjack, faro, games, dice games, handbooks, keno games and other gambling activities."

Adjutant General Fleming quickly answered the new thrust of the long-controlled governor.

STRIKE LEADERS IN MINNEAPOLIS ARE ARRESTED

Union Headquarters Is Seized By Guards—men

Minneapolis, Aug. 1.—(P)—A bloodless victory was the national guard's first after a day of activity in which Minneapolis' army of occupation in the truck drivers strike seized the headquarters of leaders, harassed pickets and arrested more than a score of persons.

Operations of the military started soon before John Belor, a picket wounded July 20 when strikers clashed with police armed with shot-guns, died in a hospital to bring to two the number of men who have died in the current strike.

Federal mediators, the Rev. Francis Haas and E. H. Dunnigan, planned their next moves in efforts to break the impasse between striker and employer during the quiet that followed in the wake of marching men with rifles, machine guns, and bayonets, who nipped in the bud the scheme of strikers to halt all trucks by force today.

CANNIBALISMS

Hoarding pavements in the gray light of early morning, 1,000 men here to enforce military rule which strikers defied went to headquarters of the drivers. Troops arrested two ringleaders, confiscated 40 automobiles, and dispersed occupants numbering several score.

The Railroad Wins

In these days railroads have to fight in court for the right to go out of business. The C. B. & Q. has won a suit in the federal circuit court of appeals to abandon its line between Galesburg and West Havana. Farmers along the route opposed the move and the communities affected fought
the case thru the courts.

But the railroad won and the line will be abandoned. It was built a generation ago to serve the Fulton county coal fields. This means that there is no longer any business in the coal fields and that business along the route is not sufficient to keep the road going. No system will abandon a line if it can be operated without a loss.

No doubt citizens of that section use their cars just as much as they do anywhere else, and they also use trucks. The decline of the railroad business is only a natural consequence of the rise of the motor vehicle traffic
and the development of hard roads.
Railroads are still useful and they will continue to serve the public, but they must be allowed to cut from their systems those lines that cannot be operated profitably if they are to continue to successfully continue those that can.

Making a Constitution

They are making a constitution now in the Philippines Islands. It is not likely to be the greatest document ever struck off by the mind of man in a similar period of time, but it will be modeled after the document that called forth Gladstone's famous tribute, the United States Constitution.

The convention was called this week, following an election of delegates held July 10 throughout the islands.
Political leaders, promoters of the islands' independence, farmers, business men and educators make up the roster of delegates. The first thing the convention did was to pass a resolution notifying the President and Congress that it was in session. The Tydings-McDuffie act granting independence to the islands provides that the constitution must be completed before Oct. 1.

It is expected to have the work done
two weeks ahead of schedule and submitted to the people for their vote. The constitution will govern the islands during the ten years of gradual withdrawal of American sovereignty.
It will doubtless provide for the executive, legislative and judicial branches of government, and for a legislature of two houses, the there are some who favor the European parliamentary plan, with a one-house legislature.

There are still some prominent men in the islands who doubt the wisdom of complete independence. They fear the results of a severance of economic ties with the United States. Those who fostered the move in this country were not looking out for Philippine welfare, but were eager for the very separation of economic interests that is likely to cause the most trouble.

Draining Away Life

The U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey is throwing verbal bricks at the Reclamation Service, charging that this department of government has suffered a senseless destruction of wild life by draining marshes and reclaiming land that should have been left as game refuges. This work has continued until the moisture has been drawn out of the land and there is nothing left for either agriculture or wild life.

Five years of drought have convinced
at least some of our government men that we have robbed nature until she has turned on us with vengeance. We have tried to put too much land under cultivation where it served a more useful purpose in conserving moisture. A few thousand acres of river bottoms left in timber and marsh land would not be worth as much under cultivation as millions of acres of good farm land laid waste
by drought.

Time was when all the land in this section, or at least a considerable portion, was covered with marshes. By draining it the pioneers created a more healthful place to live and reclaimed the land for cultivation. But not all the timber should have been cut, and marginal lands should have been left wild. Our forefathers could not be blamed for what they did, for they could not foresee what would happen; but we understand and should take remedial measures.

The Missouri Emperor

In Boone County, Mo., near Columbia lives James Longstreet, Cleveland prominent dirt farmer and candidate for the Missouri state senate. Over in New York a group of Austrian monarchs leave their jobs as waiters, taxi drivers, piano teachers, etc., and drink toasts to the possibility that the throne of Austria will be restored and a new glory will be theirs.

The eyes of some in that group turn toward the Missouri dirt farmer,
whose name they claim is Rudolph Alexander Nicholas Hapsburg, direct heir to the Austrian throne. He is a son of Crown Prince Rudolph, who had a love affair with a Russian princess,
who fled to America and had a son born.
The boy was placed in an orphanage,
the princess returned to Europe and died, and Prince Rudolph committed suicide.

Great Economic Change Is Visioned as Outgrowth of Self-Help Colonies . . . It Looks Like Mills or Stone
As G. O. P. Candidate . . .
AAA Menaced by Providence.

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal-Courier Washington
Correspondent

Washington, Aug. 1.—If you haven't grasped the significance of these federally aided self-help colonies—industrial and agricultural—which have sprung up over the country, it's because Harry Hopkins and his Federal Emergency Relief Administration
crowd are so awed by the implications that they're reluctant to discuss them yet.

Privately, many of the planners—in and out of FERA—admit that development of these colonies may lead to a new system of national economic life. Or rather, to two separate economic systems. They see:

One great group of the population
the majority, operating in the same old competitive system with all its incentives of profit, advancement, and luxury.

A second group of millions, the unemployed, living and working outside the competitive system in a giant cooperative whose members would be guaranteed comfortable subsistence
in exchange for their toils in production of goods for mutual exchange under federal or state supervision.

Citizens in each group would have complete freedom to change their status. Those in the non-competitive system who might be able to get jobs in the competitive system could do so. And those who lost out in the competitive system could join the second group.

Eventually, it is believed, the federal government would coordinate the innumerable self-help, non-profit farming and factory, and bartering projects which are found all over the country.

There's no definite program for this yet and FERA thus far has granted
only a million dollars for such organizations.

But FERA right now figures the scheme is its best bet in the face of 10,000,000 unemployed and about 15,000,000 persons on relief.
It is paying out about $100,000,000 a month for relief and plenty of people are wondering how long that can go on.

The Federal Surplus Relief Corporation has plenty of powers to develop the plan.

One of Roosevelt's closest and most trusted advisers, whose name can't be revealed here, for years has been proposing a vast sub-section of the present economic system in which persons within a given age limit would work for 25 years or so for subsistence
and then be given retirement pensions
for the rest of their lives.

There is a catch to the proposal.
The prospective husband wants the lady to agree to support him, in return for which she will be musically entertained, as he is a pianist. Mr.
Collins has not indicated what he will do about the matter. He is a busy man, as managing the state fair is no small job. He hardly has time for conducting a matrimonial agency.

Nevertheless, the idea has furnished considerable amusement for everybody. Some concessionnaire might take it on; but the difficulty would be to find a lady of sufficient finances and courage to undertake the venture. The matrimonial market is not very lively just now.

Mills or Stone for G. O. P.

A seasoned veteran of the Coolidge and Hoover administrations, who keeps as closely in touch with Republican affairs and sentiment as anyone, was asked by a friend the other day who the G. O. P. would nominate.

"If it looks as if we haven't a chance, we'll probably nominate Ogden Mills," he replied.

"But if it looks as if we might win, we'll pull Justice Harlan down off the supreme bench and run him."

Republican dope for 1936 is far from coagulated, but such an answer is in line with efforts of the best guessers. Some strong big business backing for Congressman James W.
Wadsworth is reported, but there's little doubt that the party will have to put up a liberal if it hopes to get the votes.

Like the proverbial "bad boy," Hitler gets the blame for everything that happens in Europe.

Anyone who wants to get rich might buy a Louisiana senator for what he's worth and sell him for what he thinks he's worth.

Owing to the drought Uncle Sam has had to tighten his corn belt and his wheat belt, but he's letting out his tree belt.

A new race of people has been found in New Guinea, which is news
to everybody but the new race.

We are comforted to learn that the "death ray" may never prove practical.

Study Suggestions
Made by Club Group

Local organizations of women's clubs will be interested in the following suggestions for study in international relations, as sent out by Mrs.
H. A. Harding, state chairman, Urbana Mrs. Harding is well known in Jacksonville among club women as an authority upon these subjects pertinent to international relations. In cooperation with her husband, who is of the faculty of the state university, she has studied abroad and lectures upon various phases of this topic. The outlines sent out to club chairmen are therefore of great value as an aid to study.

Mrs. Harding said: "The following facts have been culled from pamphlets of a 'New World Order' and are given as reasons for world unrest: the disquieting influence of over thirty million souls living under minority conditions throughout Europe; the vast and ever swelling army of the unemployed with its crushing burden and demoralizing influence on governments and peoples; the utter demoral-ization from which the international financial markets are now increasingly suffering; the onslaught of secularism invading what has hitherto been regarded as the impregnable
strongholds of Christian and Moslem orthodoxy. These stand out as the gravest symptoms that bode ill for the future stability of the structure of modern civilization. The fundamental cause of the unrest is attributable to the failure of those into whose hands
the immediate destinies of peoples and nations have been committed, to adjust their systems of economic and political institutions to the imperative needs of a fast evolving age."

In the attempt of the clubs to educate for peace, some of these things may be revealed from a study of the follow-

Heavy Rains Badly Needed to Rescue Crops, Report Says

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—Heavy rains are badly needed throughout Illinois to check further deterioration of corn and discourage chinch bugs, the Weather Bureau announced today in its weekly crop report.

Northwestward from Macoupin and Jersey counties, said Meteorologist E. W. Holcomb, much of the corn is beyond help.

"Condition of corn is variable and the crop generally deteriorated during the week," the report said. "Corn is shooting ears generally and the best is in the roasting ear stage, with a few complaints of poor filling."

"Corn is firing and tassels burning in many places in the north and west parts of the state, particularly on highlands, and there is considerable permanent damage from the Kaskaskia valley northwestward. Much of the crop is beyond help from Jersey and Macoupin counties northwestward, with some fields being cut to save for fodder."

"Threshing is nearly completed generally and some plowing has been done."

"Meadows and pastures are mostly fair to a failure; however, considerable second crop alfalfa has been cut, and soy beans are quite promising in the numerous localities favored during the past few weeks by good local showers. A third and short cutting of alfalfa is beginning in the southern division."

"Weather conditions were mostly favorable for development of the second brood of chinch bugs, with that pest present in large numbers in some of the drier areas. Spotted damage to corn continues from that insect."

"Truck and potatoe are mostly only fair to a failure as a result of the drought and the heat wave, and the fruit crop is very poor."

Holcomb's report, for the week ending yesterday, said showers were mostly light and widely scattered since the heat wave ended.

"Much sunshine and low humidities caused rapid evaporation of surface moisture," it added. "There are places in the western part where securing domestic and stock water is a serious problem."

The prayer for rain was partly answered by reports received by the Weather Bureau today. At New Burnside, 2.86 inches of rain fell. Elkhorn received 1.66. Rain was also reported at Cairo, Springfield, Hillsboro, Havana, Olney and St. Louis.

Local Boys Return from Military Camp

Wadsworth Applebee, James A. Gordon and John Woods returned Tuesday night from Jefferson Barracks, where they spent the past month in the Citizens' Military Training camp. Some of the boys came home Sunday and obtained a truck, in which to bring back their baggage.

The camp closed Monday with a review of the 1,800 young men who took training, and the awarding of honors and prizes to individuals and companies for distinguished work during the course. All of the boys who went from Jacksonville were in the first year class.

They obtained some good experience and went thru a hardening process. When they reported for examination, the work was delayed till after dinner and the boys had to go about and eat their first meal in camp dressed in slickers. It was hot that day, and they were glad enough when the ordeal was ended.

Places vacated by the C. M. T. C. are being taken this week by 2,500 recruits for the Civilian Conservation Corps, who will take their conditioning course before being sent to the various CCC camps.

Ott bagged both homers off Freddy Frankhouse in the second game, the first with a mate on base in the first inning and the second in the third with none on base.

He also made a single, double and triple in the opener and drove across the same in the second game, the first with his two homers in the second doubled off Bobby Smith in the seventh and scored three times.

The Giants made a total of 30 hits, 16 in the first game and 14 in the nightcap. Jack Salveson, recently recalled from Montreal, started the first game and was relieved by Carl Hubbell in the last of the sixth when New York had a lead of 9 to 2. The Braves made only two hits off Hubbell.

Issues are Outlined By Four Speakers At Picnic Wednesday

employed in almost as great numbers as they were two years ago; and hungry, is a disgrace to civilization. Perpetrators of this wanton scheme ought to be made themselves to go hungry for a while. Americans bitterly resent it, and it ought to be stopped now.

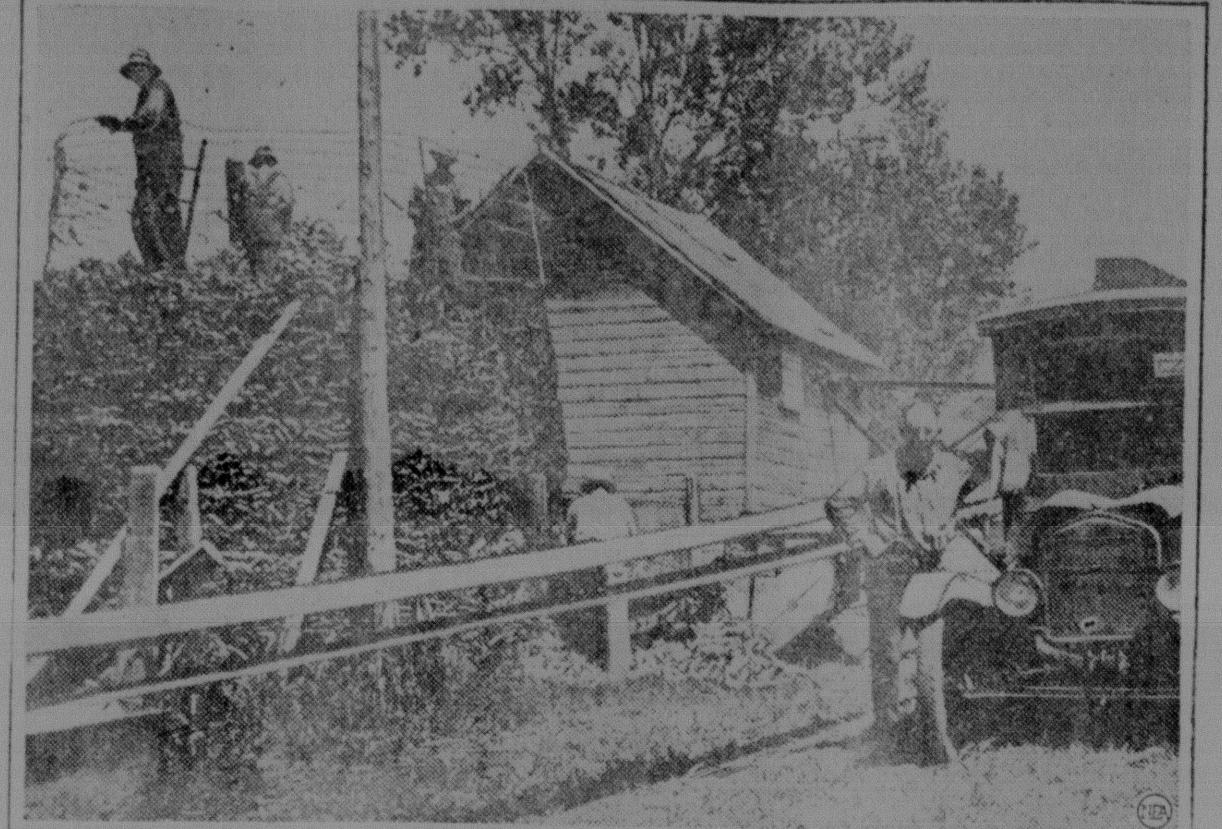

The utter profligacy and wastefulness with taxpayers' money has been gun to fairly terrify this country. Bureaucracy has reached an all time peak. Followed through, before many years one-half the people of the United States will be political parasites with the other half slaving to support them.

"In my opinion, farmers of this district and of the country have been deliberately sold out by Democratic tariff manipulators, plus the heavy tribute that bureaucracy has leveled upon agriculture through process taxes and one-sided farm contracts. The government boasts of having collected a total of $71 millions in processing taxes. It ought to refund every cent of that money to growers of the product on which that tax was collected, then repeal the tax in its entirety. It has helped materially in holding down farm market prices; and the money thus collected has gone, in many instances, to political hangers-on who don't even know what an Illinois chinch-bug is."

Restore Buying Power

"Our plain job in America is to restore buying power. And, we have

Farmers Rush to Sell Corn as Drouth Boosts Price

Midwest farmers who have repaid their government loans now are unsealing their cribs and selling their corn at the new higher prices, coming as result of the widespread drouth damage. Here is a scene on a farm near Rockwell City, Ia., ear corn being fed into the sheller, a truck standing by to haul away the shelled grain pouring into it.

impositions, half the property of the country soon will be owned by the government. Confiscation is not a remedy in a republic like ours."

Lawler Talks

The next speaker introduced by Judge Dubois was State Representative W. J. Lawler of Springfield who spoke briefly and to the point. He said:

"My colleague and Senator Searcy have not been the rubber stamp of any government. It is upon our record that we come before you and ask to be returned to our work in the legislature at Springfield. We supported the program of the Agricultural Association of the State of Illinois and stood for the interests of the farmers of the state. I am personally very deeply interested in the Old Age pension law. Such a law can be placed upon the statute books without raising the tax burden of the people. Twenty-nine states of the union have such a law. Illinois should have this kind of law. It will enable old men and good old women to live during their declining years at home honestly, peacefully and decently."

W. O. Withrow was then presented as a candidate for county superintendent of schools of Sangamon county and L. E. Burke as a candidate for the office of probate clerk.

Chairman Mills then called upon Harry Strawn, chairman of the Morgan County Republican Central Committee to introduce candidates for county offices of Morgan County and the following were presented and each spoke a few words of greeting: Oscar Zachary, candidate for county judge; Lee Stice, candidate for sheriff; J. A. Leitez candidate for superintendent of schools; Clarence Siegert, candidate for county clerk; Fred Schoenfeld, candidate for assessor and treasurer; Walter Farneyhough, candidate for county commissioner. In presenting the candidates Chairman Strawn said: "I firmly resolved upon assuming the chairmanship of the Republican central committee of Morgan county to use my utmost endeavors to weld the party into one unit without factions. I think that has been accomplished. There is at this time no boss of the Republican party in Morgan county."

Green is Speaker

The final speaker was Representative Hugh Green of Jacksonville who in a brief way reviewed his record as a public servant both as county official and member of the General Assembly. Mr. Green said:

"It is not what you want that does you any good; it is what you get. The people do not like to vote for one thing and get another. Two years ago the people voted for a change. You voted for a 25 per cent reduction in the cost of Federal Government. Did you get it? No. Instead there was a 38 per cent increase by April 30 of this year. You voted for a consolidation of departments and cutting down of the number of bureaus. You were told that such would be the case. Instead there have already been 37 new bureaus and it is evident that more are coming. You voted to reduce the number of Federal employees. Instead there has been an increase in the Civil Service employees alone to the number of 60,000 or over 11 per cent."

In speaking of State affairs Mr. Green said: "Too much money is being taken from the people by the State in taxes. During the fiscal year just past being 1933-34, there has been collected from the people in State taxes the enormous sum of nearly $170,000,000.00, shown by the records in the office of the State Treasurer and State Auditor. This is about $30,000,000.00 more than was collected from them in the previous year of 1932-33, and about $56,000,000.00 more than the average for the past ten years."

"The Sales Tax was not supposed to make taxes higher as it has done. But the effect of the sales tax has been to increase the burden of the average tax-payer. Where a tax-payer who is supporting a family, and lives in a modest home, will save $10.00 in taxes on his home, he will pay out in sales tax that amount on his grocery and milk bills alone. If you add to this, the amount that he pays for connection with purchases for clothing, fuel, and other necessary living expenses, you will find that the tax-payer who saves $10.00 on the one hand, pays out $40.00 or $50.00 on the other hand. While the first sales tax passed in the House in March 1933 by a vote of 103 in its favor, it was declared unconstitutional and by the time that the matter came up a second time in June 1933, it only received 73 votes, barely enough for passage. I voted against it each time."

"I appreciate the honor of having served you as your State's attorney for two terms and as your Representative for one term. Alone, or in conjunction with others, I introduced five Bills, all of which became laws. One of them saved the tax-payers of Morgan County about $3,000.00, being the Bill to abolish the useless Primary Election in 1933, when there was only one candidate for the office of County Commissioner on each ticket. If re-elected, I shall try to serve you faithfully and render constructive legislative service."

James Truslow Adams
The Tempo of Modern Life

When Professor Adams gives the public a book readers have found that he always has something to say that is really worthwhile.

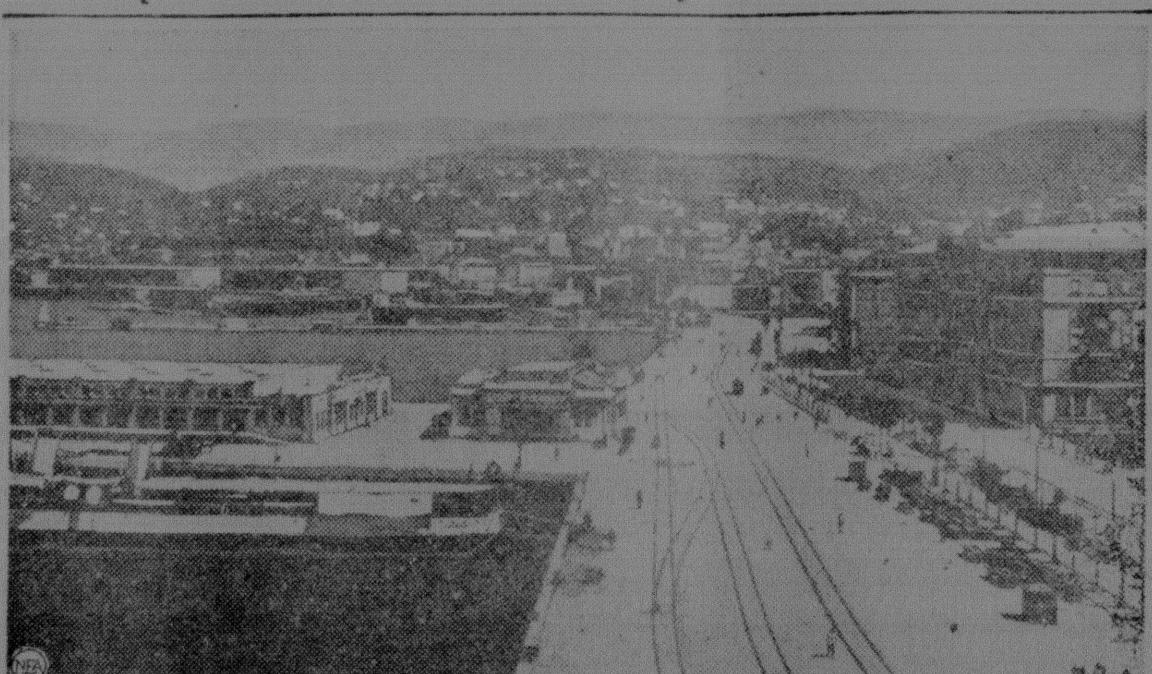

The Tempo of Modern Life is a collection of thoughtful comments on the various aspects of our modern civilization. Among some of the trends in present-day American life which Mr. Adams deplores are the ever-increasing pace and lack of repose, the substitution of self-expression for self-discipline, of spending for saving, of dependence for self-reliance, of garrulosity for solitude, of success for integrity, and of the mediocre for the excellent.

Mr. Adams thinks that under the surface of our disillusioned and weary post-war age there is evidently a good deal more personal preoccupation with the problem of standards than many people might suppose. Minor controversies and squabbles which break forth from time to time indicate that there are many who still believe that there are intellectual and moral values in life which are worth while, that ideas do matter tremendously.

He quotes from one of the many letters, which he receives often, from boys just out of college: Events have made youth a little more realistic than

Italy Guards Trieste Closely in Austrian Crisis

With the First squadron of the Italian navy nearby in the northern Adriatic sea, a close watch is being maintained over Trieste, great Italian port during the Austrian crisis. Mammoth docks of the seaport are shown here, with the city stretching back toward the hills. Trieste, a city of 250,000, was among the spoils of the World War wrested by Italy from Austria. LITTLETON TO BE FOE OF CLOTHIERS

Beardstown, Aug. 1.—Mac's Clothiers baseball team will battle the Littleton nine on Sunday at Littleton, according to announcement just made by Manager Gus Campbell.

For two Sundays in a row local fans will have accompanied the team out of town. Last Sunday they saw the local administer a licking to the Clayton team at Clayton, and they are looking forward to a repetition of victory again this coming Sunday.

An all-star team selected from the local Twilight league will play the Mac's Clothiers team in two weeks on August 19. If plans now underway materialize by that time, the game will be played in Sportsman's park.

The Mac's Clothiers plan to use their regular lineup while the star players for the opposing team will be selected from the six Twilight league teams: Dick's, Surratt's, West End, Glenn's, Budweiser and Sterlings. The manner of selection of the All-Star team members has not been decided upon, although several plans are under consideration. The game is being arranged at the suggestion of local fans.

The Sterling and the West End teams played off a 6 to 6 tie game late this afternoon on the West End diamond. The games scheduled for the remainder of the week have been postponed due to the carnival showing here.

SIX ILLINOIS CITIES TO GET HEARINGS ON MILK MARKETING PACT

Washington, Aug. 1.—Hearings on milk marketing agreements proposed by the Illinois Agricultural Association and the respective local associations of milk producers will be held by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration during August in six cities of Illinois, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration announced today.

The hearings will be held at Peoria, August 13, in the red room, Jefferson hotel; Rockford, August 15, at the Hotel Nelson; Champaign, August 17, in the Elks' auditorium; Bloomington, August 20, in the Illinois hotel auditorium; Decatur, August 21, at the Orlando hotel; and Danville, August 22, in the Y.M.C.A. building.

All of the proposed agreements except that for Peoria, are drafted for hearing on the standard form for areas having a base and surplus market plan without country receiving stations. No established producers' prices or minimum resale prices to consumers are placed in the tentative drafts, as these will be developed at the hearings. The proposed check-off for producers' benefits is placed at 5 cents per 100 pounds of milk, and the usual protective clauses for producers in regard to checking tests and weights and guarantee of payment for miles are included. Furthermore, producers who distribute only milk of their own production are exempt from the pool and adjustment account up to the amount of their established base milk, with requirements that they report regularly to the market administrator and pay their equal share with other producers in the expense of administering the market.

The Peoria sales area named in the tentative agreement includes Richwoods, Limestone and Peoria townships in Peoria county and Fond du Lac Township in Tazewell county, with a population of 105,000. The agreement is sponsored locally by the Peoria Milk Producers Association.

The Rockford agreement is sponsored by the Midwest Dairymen's Company. The sales area contains a population of 86,000. The sales area includes Rockford city and Rockford township and part of Cherry Valley township in Winnebago county.

The Champaign County Milk Producers Association has requested the proposed agreement which will be considered at the hearing at Champaign. The sales area has a population of 33,000.

The McLean County Milk Producers Association has requested the hearing for Bloomington. The sales area has a population of 37,000.

The Decatur sales area has a population of about 38,000 and the agreement is requested by the Decatur Milk Producers Association. The proposed sales area there includes the city and township of Decatur and parts of South Wheatland and Congressional townships in Mason county.

The Danville Milk Producers Association has requested the hearing on the proposed agreement at Danville. The agreement would affect an area of about 37,000 population.

Copies of the tentative drafts of the proposed marketing agreements may be obtained from the chief hearing clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

HORNER WON'T RUN AGAINST LEWIS FOR SENATOR IN 1936

By MILBURN P. AKERS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—Political dopesters who have foreseen a 1936 struggle between James Hamilton Lewis and Henry Horner over the Democratic nomination for United States Senator have apparently reckoned without the governor.

Back from a two weeks vacation during which the rumor gained wide currency, the governor today dismissed the report with the statement:

"I wouldn't consider running against Senator Lewis. If he is a candidate for renomination I will be glad to fight on his side."

HEAVY RAIN AT CARBONDALE
Carbondale, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—The heaviest rainfall of the year, totalling about one-third of an inch, fell in Carbondale and vicinity last night. The rain was accompanied by an electrical storm, which caused some damage to crops.

Laboratory tests show that we might live for 1000 years if we could keep our blood temperature at 45 degrees Fahrenheit.

Livestock Dealers to "Crack Down" on Striking Yardsmen

Chicago, Aug. 1.—(P)—Livestock commission merchants threatened today to "crack down" on the handlers' union to end the spreading Union Stockyards strike.

The commission men demanded that the matter be taken to the courts, just about the time members of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers Workmen of C. A. Bunting & Company walked out last night.

This strike was not so much of a sympathetic gesture, it was reported, as an internal dispute over seniority rights. The union said 400 men were involved. Company officials placed the number at 150.

The demand of the commission men was based on the ground that they are the heaviest losers in the strike which has locked the yards for more than a week.

Leaders of the handlers' union previously rejected the suggestion of officials of the Union Stockyards and Transit Company that Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan be called on to construe an award he made May 31 at a previous arbitration hearing.

Some quarters hold that the position of the commission men—their refusal to accept shipments of stock since the strike started—has been the chief factor in averting violence in the yards.

But the commission men expressed the fear that with the Chicago market closed, some of their clients who have been selling stock in other markets will continue to ship there, even after the strike is ended.

$1,000 AWAITS MAN WHO GAVE OFFICERS TIP ON DILLINGER

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—Illinois will pay the $1,000 it offered for the apprehension of John Dillinger as soon as it is definitely determined who is entitled to the reward.

Governor Horner made this announcement today. He said the governors of four other states had offered $1,000 each for the apprehension of the desperado. He said he thought the terms of the reward had been met with the death of the gunman and that as soon as he had been given authentic information he would have the $1,000 offered by the state paid to the person or persons entitled to it.

Like federal officials, Mr. Horner intends to keep secret the names of persons who get the reward.

CONVICTS ESCAPE

Menard, Ill., Aug. 1.—(P)—After serving nine years and four months of his term which was to expire February 2, 1933, Louis Elkins, sentenced for robbery and a "trusty" walked off the prison. So far the search for him has been fruitless.

Two Are Hurt In Truck Crash On South Road

Machine Leaves State Highway Slippery Pavement

Two persons were painfully hurt about one-thirty o'clock yesterday afternoon when an Ideal Baking company truck in which they were riding skidded from the pavement and crashed in the ditch about one mile south of the city. Grant Ferguson, Jr., suffered a fractured collarbone and both shoulders were bruised and scratched. Grant Ferguson, Sr., driver of the truck, escaped with an abrasion on the back and slight scratches in addition to a heavy shaking-up.

The truck was being driven toward this city at the time of the accident. The pavement was in slippery condition due to the rain and in some manner, the machine started skidding and tumbled over once or twice. The body of the truck was practically demolished.

Lloyd and Alfred Massey and John Wike were a short distance from the scene of the crash, heard the noise from the smash-up and went to the aid of the men in the machine. The injured were picked up and taken to Passavant hospital, where they were attended by Dr. Reginald Norris.

After receiving treatment, Baldwin left the hospital, but Grant Ferguson, Jr., remained for further observation.
